

Downtown Reno Business Improvement District (BID) Nomination Committee

Application for:

Residential Representative Position

The proposed Downtown Reno Business Improvement District (BID) is a special taxing district encompassing the core of the downtown Reno area. The Downtown Reno Business Improvement district will be governed by a Board of Directors comprised of private and public representatives. Pursuant to a recommendation by the Progressive Urban Management Alliance (PUMA), a nominating committee is being organized to facilitate the initial organization of the downtown management organization. Committee members are volunteers with a broad range of interests and backgrounds connected to the core area of downtown Reno. Candidates for the residential representative position must own and reside in a residence located within the proposed business improvement district in downtown Reno. For consideration, candidates are invited to fill out the brief application below. Send the completed form to the BID Organizing Committee Chair: Cindy Carano c/o Eldorado Resort Casino, P.O. Box 3399, Reno, NV 89505; or via email to: caranoc@eldoradoreno.com. Please contact her at: (775) 348-9288 with any questions. The BID Organizing Committee will make a selection by February 1st, 2018.

This application must be submitted by January 19, 2018.
